

What are we doing?

State-Approved E-Learning Days

- Sept 28
- Nov 16
- Jan 25
- Apr 5

ALL WEDNESDAYS

Inclement weather days are NOT an option for SCSC yet!

Why E-Learning Days?

- To prepare students for independent learning for college and workforce
- Allows for professional development opportunities for staff, without loss of instructional time or finding subs
- All staff will report to work and get paid
- Prepare everyone for inclement weather school days within a few years

Who participates?

Grades 7-12

- These students stay at home
- They can ride normal bus routes/times to study hall/lunch if desired
- Career center students will still attend their classes at career center
- Extra-curricular activities are by coach discretion

Who participates?

Grade 3-6

Grade Level	Sept 28	Nov 16	Jan 25	Apr 5
3rd Grade	Practice at school	Practice at school	Practice at school	Optional
4th Grade	Practice at school	Practice at school	Optional	Participate at home
5th Grade	Practice at school	Optional	Participate at home	Participate at home
6th Grade	Practice at school	Optional	Participate at home	Participate at home

Key*

Practice: Students report to school, teachers & students practice independent learning

Optional: Students may stay home for independent learning or they may report to school (This will be determined based on practice success).

Participate: Students will stay home for independent learning.

Who participates?

Grades 3-6

- Elementary students will come to school for the first e-learning day.
 - They will have a normal schedule.
 - Classroom time will be a simulated day at home with students working independently, under their instructor's supervision.

Who participates?

Grades K-2

- These students attend school with a normal schedule

Expectations

- Students complete school work on chromebooks
- Can download material at school to work without internet at home
- Teachers will have office hours for help by phone, email, Google Hangouts
 - 9:00-10:00am
 - 2:00-3:30pm
- School work is due Thursday or Friday by teacher discretion
- Attendance is counted by school work submitted by due date