On behalf of the Community Foundation of Switzerland County, Inc., I take great pleasure in informing you that the Switzerland County School Corporation has been awarded a grant in the amount of $30,720. This grant is from the Jefferson County United Way COVID-19 Economic Relief Fund. This grant is to cover 12 months of internet access ($32 per month per hotspot) for the 80 hotspots for the internet loan program. This grant will be made in two payments of $15,360. First payment will be made the first of September. The second payment will be made when the funds from the first payment are expended and a report is submitted.

This grant is made possible from income generated from the following endowment funds: Pamela Wilson Acton Community Fund, Mike & Melissa Andrew Community Fund, The Bond Family Community Fund, Nate Christman & Chester Meisberger Memorial Community Fund, Community Foundation Board & Alumni Community Fund, William & Kathy Day Community Fund, Duke Energy Community Fund, First Financial Community Fund, Lowell & Luanne Green Family Community Fund, Kiwanis Club of Vevay, Inc. Community Fund, Roger A. May Memorial Community Fund, Joe & Mary Ann Ricketts Community Fund, Jeanette Christine "Chrissy" Ridener Community Fund, Renny Rieman Remembrance Community Fund, Schmitt/Osborn Family Community Fund, Switzerland County Community Fund, Vevay Deposit Bank Community Fund, Vevay-Switzerland County Foundation Community Fund, Vevay High School (1863-1968) Alumni Community Fund and the Vevay Switzerland County Lions Club Community Fund.

Please find attached a signed Grant Agreement. Please have your board president sign and return to the Foundation office. Don't forget to make a copy for your files. You may scan the signed agreement and email it to pacton@cfsci.org.

If you have any questions or comments, please do not hesitate to contact Pam Acton, executive director at 427-9160.

Congratulations,
