

The attached information only applies to you if you or any of your dependents are Medicare eligible.

- * To be Medicare eligible you must be at least age 65 or be disabled.

- * If this does apply to you or one of your dependents, please read the attached information on the Medicare Part D program and how this Medicare component might apply to you.